

"LIVING WITH" FORM

Instructions for completing this form and registration of student(s):

1. Before registering student(s), the parent or guardian and homeowner or renter must fill out this form.
2. If parent/guardian and student(s) are moving into an apartment that is registered in someone else's name, a statement from the apartment manager is also required. This statement must acknowledge that additional occupants are residing there and should be written/typed on the apartment complex/manager's stationery.
3. Both parties must then take the form to a notary public and both parties must be present while all signatures are notarized.
4. Parent/Guardian must present the following to the school to register student(s):
 - Notarized "Living With" form and, if applicable, the apartment acknowledgment statement
 - Copy of your new driver's license indicating your change of address to this location and one of the following:
 - a. recent paycheck stub or letter from your employer confirming this address or
 - b. if receiving some form of public assistance, a letter from your caseworker confirming this address or
 - c. another document acceptable to the school principal that confirms this address

(If you have students that will attend other Kettering Schools, please make additional copies of the above information to submit to the other schools.)
