COMMITTEE REPORTS

TEACHER APPRECIATION: Teacher Appreciation Week kicked off today. Bagels, fruit, pastries, juice, and coffee were provided to the teachers this morning. The cookout lunch will be on Friday, May 10th. If it is raining, lunch will be served in the small gym. Six hanging basket plants will be raffled to teachers during the week. Thus far, $346 was spent on the Fall dinner and the February dinner. Approximately $100 was spent on the breakfast this morning. Lunch from Subway is being considered for the Teacher Luncheon on May 23rd.

BOX TOPS: Over 10,000 box tops have been brought in this year.

MARKET DAY: Participation is down. Incentives, such as "Crazy Hat Day", are being considered to improve participation in the future.

PLANT SALE: The plant sale went well. Only 3 orders have not been picked up.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS: Four Fairmont seniors won the JFK PTO Scholarship. One music scholarship and 3 non-music scholarships were granted. The winners will be present at the JFK Awards Assembly on May 21, 2013 at 12:30pm.

NEW BUSINESS

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL: The Fine Arts Festival will be held on May 14, 2013. Mrs. Mitchell needs volunteers to help at craft booths. She only has 2 volunteers currently.

MRS.REYNOLDS GRANT PROPOSAL: Mrs. Reynolds has applied for a grant that would provide money to buy the Wenger footNOTES Music Rug, which teaches the treble cleff. If awarded the grant, Mrs. Reynolds has asked the PTO to pay for the shipping cost, $132. Jennifer made the motion for the PTO to agree to pay for shipping and Kelli seconded it.

NEW BOARD MEMBERS: New board members were voted into the position of President, Vice President, and Secretary. By unanimous votes for each position, Pam Sargent was elected President, Ann Lairmore was elected Vice President, and Gina Gentile was elected Secretary. Valerie Gifford will continue as Treasurer.
