

Does Fairmont believe in luck?

With St. Patrick's Day coming, Firebirds share their thoughts on superstitions and luck

Darren McGarvey,
English teacher

"I don't walk under ladders."

By Stephanye Floyd,
Staff Photographer

Tricia Taylor,
English teacher

"I'm actually not superstitious."

Ananda Harris,
Senior

"I am superstitious about people saying good luck before a show."

Indigo Monbeck,
Junior

"I don't believe in superstitions or luck."

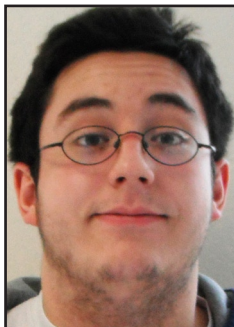

Alex Hock,
Sophomore

"I don't really believe in luck."

Courtney Combs,
Sophomore

"I believe there can be good luck like winning the lottery."

Brad Steel,
Sophomore

"I sacrifice a goat before every game."

Sydney Isaacs,
Sophomore

"I believe in karma. What goes around comes around."

Niki Israel,
Senior

"I always throw salt over my shoulder when I spill salt."